Better than Spanking

Spanking will not cure children from wetting the bed, because it is not a habit, but a dangerous disease. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co., of London, Canada, have discovered a strictly harmless remedy for this distressing disease, and to make known its merits they will send a 50 cent package securely wrapped and prepaid Absolutely Free to any reader of the HERALD.

Finds Cure for Epilepsy After Years of Suffering

"My daughter was afflicted with epileptic fits for three years, the attacks coming every few weeks. We employed several doctors but they did her no good. About a year ago we heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine, and it certainly has proved a blessing to our little girl. She is now apparently cured and is enjoying the best of health. It is over a year since she has had a fit. We cannot speak too highly of Dr. Miles' Nervine."

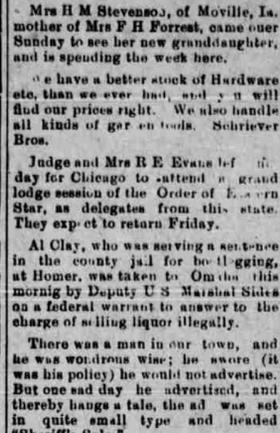

MRS. FRANK ANDERSON, Conroy, Minn. Thousands of children in the United States who are suffering from attacks of epilepsy are a burden and sorrow to their parents, who would give anything to restore health to the sufferers.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is one of the best remedies known for this affliction. It has proven beneficial in thousands of cases and those who have used it have the greatest faith in it. It is not a "cure-all," but a reliable remedy for nervous diseases. You need not hesitate to give it a trial.

But one sad day he advertised, and thereby hangs a tale, the ad was set in quite small type and headed "Sheriff's Sale."

M O Ayres has begun the erection of a bank building at South Sioux City to replace the wooden building now occupied by the bank of South Sioux City. In giving the yields of grain reported by the different farmers around the Byder, N D, which run all the way from 7 bushels to 17 bushels for wheat and as high as 50 bushels for oats, the Journal of that place had the following in reference to Arthur Seymour, a former resident of this place, who owns a half section adjoining Byder and also farms a quarter section belonging to his cousin, Alfred Seymour, of this place: "Art Seymour's wheat of 300 acres yielded over 5,000 bushels, an average of about 17 bushels and the banner yield when the acreage is taken into consideration. It is admitted by all Mr Seymour is a good farmer and a hustler, but he modestly disclaims credit on that score. He believes that his land in its sandier quality lends itself to earlier seeding, and that this same quality matures grain quicker than heavier land. To this he accounts the better yield this year in his grain having been farther along and so better able to withstand the long dry period during the month of June. Let that be as it may, his own efforts count for something—we reckon quite as much so or more than the land itself."

Death's Toll

RALPH GOODWIN Ralph Goodwin, for fifty-five years a resident of Dakota county, died at his farm home north of town last Thursday, September 18, 1913, aged 76 years. His death came rather sudden, as he had been ailing only a short time, and was not considered in a serious condition. Mr Goodwin came to Nebraska in 1858 and took a claim in Cedar county, afterward locating in Dakota City. He purchased the farm just north of town which was his home for the past thirty-eight years. He was married to Miss Mary L Whitehorn, daughter of Samuel Whitehorn, March 21, 1865. Mr Goodwin was born May 27, 1837, in Darbyville, England, and came to America with his parents in 1847, locating in Dane county, Wis, where they engaged in farming. Imbued with the western fever, Mr Goodwin came to Sioux City, and a glance at the fertile lands of Nebraska convinced him that a home here was all anyone could ask, and set to work creating one. Mr Goodwin enlisted in Company L Second Nebraska cavalry when the civil war broke out, and served with that company until the close of the war. He was a quiet, unassuming man, attentive to his own private affairs, and a citizen that was respected by his entire acquaintance. He led a christian life, being a member of the Methodist church, and his dealings with mankind were ever prompted by his teachings. Those who survive him are his widow, one daughter, Mrs J T Graham, and five sisters, Mrs Emma Bowley and Miss Mattie Goodwin, of Jefferson, Ia, Mrs Ellen Taylor, of Chelalis, Wash; Mrs Sarah Arland, of Monterano, Wash; and Mr Mary Vernon, of Madison, Wis. The funeral services were held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock from the M E church, conducted by Rev J Crews. Interment was in Graceland cemetery, Sioux City.
